Thank you for contacting us regarding your interest in the donation of stock. Below is information for transferring stock to our broker account at Schwab.

These electronic transactions may not always include donor information. For that reason, please contact me or ask your broker to contact me when the stock is transferred, providing name of stock and number of shares so I may watch for it and credit your account in a timely manner.

The stock will be sold on the date of receipt and an acknowledgement will be sent to you upon receipt of proceeds from the sale.

If you have any questions, please let me know.
